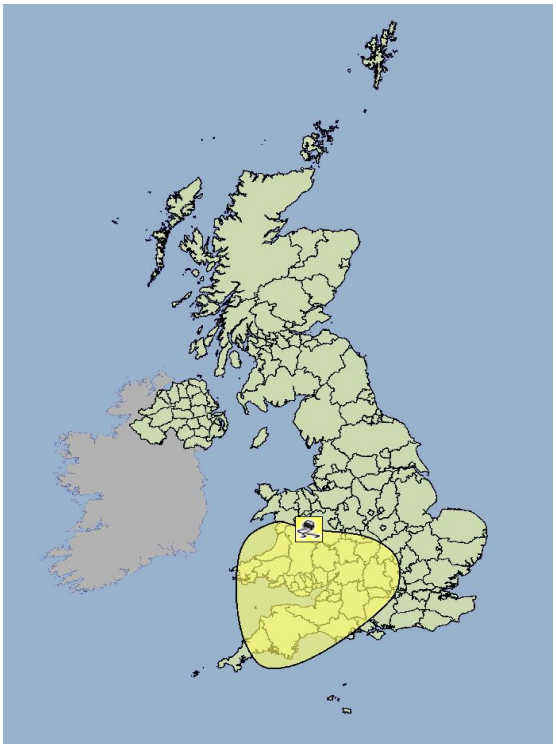
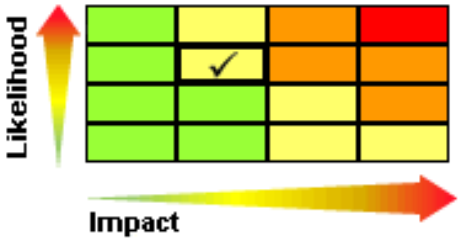
National Severe Weather Warning Service





Chief Forecasters Assessment
Clear spells are expected to develop from the west early Sunday morning and will be accompanied by the arrival of colder air. This will result in falling temperatures and icy patches are likely to develop on some untreated surfaces, especially where any wintry showers lead to wash off of previous treatment.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Ice

Valid from 03:00 on Sun, 11th Feb 2018 until 10:00 on Sun, 11th Feb 2018

Icy patches are expected to form in places on untreated surfaces on Sunday morning.

Some icy patches are likely to form on untreated roads, pavements and cycle paths leading to the chance of some injuries from slips and falls.
